

Easy to put on and take off with one hand and secure with a double lock. Simple and clean looking clasp with robustness and ease of use.

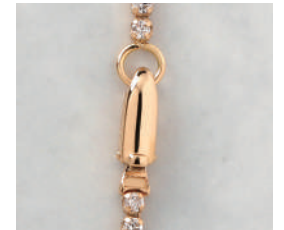

Croco-Lock is Crossfor's patent product.

Double-locking design with the upper and lower hooks firmly clamping the end ring like a "crocodile".

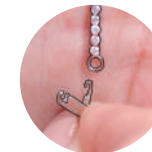

Anyone can easily put on and take off the ring by simply hooking the end ring and closing it.

The simple, unobtrusive design allows the jewelry to be worn with a variety of jewelry without detracting from its beauty.
