

Italian design chain Made in Indonesia

Hollow chain with Italian design that combines volume and light wearing comfort.

Crossfor's original Italian-designed hollow chain combines a sense of volume with a light feel.

The hollow chain is a feature of the Crossfor original chain, and the beauty of the surface of the base metal is a feature.

There are many types of designs, so it is possible to develop products that are not the same as those of other companies.

We can produce not only YG, but also PG and WG. (These are made to order.)

Basic design

You can choose the length and thickness of each design. We can also propose designs other than these, but they will be made to order (delivery time: approx. 45 to 60 days).
